Silver Predator Grants Options

Vancouver, British Columbia, September 15, 2010: Silver Predator Corp. (CNSX:SPD) (the "Company") announces that it has granted incentive stock options for the purchase of 420,000 common shares of the Company at a price of $0.50 per share to its directors, officers and consultants. The options expire five years from the date of grant and are subject to vesting as to 25% every six months.

About Silver Predator Corp.

Silver Predator Corp.'s corporate mandate is to explore and develop commercially viable silver resources in the leading silver districts of Yukon, Canada and Nevada, USA. Working within stable geopolitical jurisdictions, Silver Predator will focus on silver-dominant bulk tonnage opportunities. Proven management plus access to unparalleled geological talent in the Yukon and extensive experience in Nevada provide the ability to maximize shareholder value from the Company's quality asset base. Silver Predator has agreed to acquire 100% interests in 15 exploration and development properties and acquire options to earn 100% interests (subject to certain royalties) in 5 properties in Nevada and the Yukon, from Golden Predator Corp., Rockhaven Resources Ltd. and Strategic Metals Ltd. This transaction is anticipated to close in 2010.
